

CAREERS WITH A FUTURE

AGRONOMISTS

The Co-operative Retailing System, with various retail Agro locations throughout Saskatchewan, is now accepting applications for Agronomists.

The successful applicants will be responsible for providing crop production and soil management information to local area farmers, conducting market analysis, providing field seminars and demonstrations, and performing direct sales calls.

Applicants must have a strong agricultural background, a post-secondary diploma or degree in Agriculture and the Certified Crop Advisor designation. Applicants must also possess excellent communication, customer service, organizational skills and computer knowledge, including skills in using spreadsheets. A valid driver's license is required.

The Co-operative Retailing System offers:

- a build-from-within culture
- a comprehensive salary and benefits package
- excellent opportunities for advancement
- tremendous learning opportunities
- recognition for good work
- a stable and supportive work environment

Interested candidates should submit detailed résumés along with salary expectations to:
